Moultrie County Health Department Sponsors Certified Food Protection Manager's Class

SULLIVAN, IL, March 18, 2019 – The Moultrie County Health Department is sponsoring a Certified Food Protection Manager (CFPM) on Wednesday, April 24 from 8 a.m. – 5 p.m. The class will be held at the Moultrie County Sheriff's Department, located at 1505 W. Hagerman St., Sullivan. Seating is limited, so please sign up now. The class will provide certification for food service managers.

Preregistration is required. To sign up for this certification, please call 1-800-705-8204 or visit www.ctcfoodsantiation.com. For questions or to send a registration form, you may also email Tisenburg@ctcfood.net. The cost for the course is $127 per person, payable to CTC.

The State of Illinois requires food service establishments to have at least one certified Food Protection Manager on the premises at all times food is being prepared. Food service Managers are required to complete an approved eight-hour training course and pass ANSI-CFM approved Certified Food Protection Manager exam. This exam is included in the current course, and the certification is valid anywhere in the United States.
